FROM POINTS AROUND.

REPORTED SPECIALLY FOR THE STAR. CYNTHIANA, KY. -The Rev. F. Brossart, R. C. pastor, has gone on a mission ary tour along the Southern railroad, to preach the gospel to the nomadic popu lation who infest that highly interesting

The famous humorist, Josh Billings, is announced to secture in the Moitan Hall on Monday evening, the Stn of Novem-ber next. The fame of the lecturer is likely to draw a large sudience. Thomas C. Jefferson intends having a proble sale of horses at his livery stables on the corner of Pike and Walnut streets, on the first Saturday and lourth Monday (County Court day) of each month; first sale to be held on Saturday, November 625, 1875.

h, 1875. Monday being County Court day, there

Monday being County Court day, there was a large attendance in town from the country districts. From four to five hundred head of cattle were sold, the average prices of milk cows ranging from $35 to $40. The bucoite population retired to their homes in the evening, well freighted with beer and bourbon.

Mr. Jonn W. Eckler, a respected citizen, who resided on Main street, was baried on Tuesday. His remains, which were taken to Jacksonville, distant about eight miles from here, were followed by the Freemasons society, to which fraternity be belonged. The tuwhich fraternity he belonged. The tu-neral was attended by the Masonic fra-ternity, as well as by a large number of sorrowing friends. He died in the prime of life, and was much respected by all

HAMILTON .- The United Presbyte. rian Church social meets Thursday evening, in the lecture room of the Churen.

Mrs. Rebecca Ludlow, wife of Dr. Wm. Ludlow, formerly of this city, died of consumption at Denver, Colorado, on the 21st instant. The soncert and dramatic reading to be given by Miss Pauline Straub and Mrs. Weller, at Middletown, will take place Friday evening, of this week, and not this evening, as stated in yesterday's

J. & J. S. Giffin vs. Francis Bealer et al. Suit to recover $199.25 under the act entitled "An act to create a lize in favor of mechanics and others in certain cases," for lumber turnished. The First National Bank of Hamilton against Geo. Bisdorf and T. Frederick.

mount claimed, $180. The case of Mary Benson vs. Charles Dell, a saloon keeper, is being tried to-day. Suit is brought under the Adair liquor law to secure damages for selling her husband intoxicating drinks.

The well-known grocery firm of J. C.
Holbrock & Co. made an assignment yeserday.
It would be well for the drivers of the street cars to learn that when the beil is rung a short distance from a crossing it is usually the desire of the passenger to be deposited at the crossing rather than at the exact locality where the bell is rung.

No new cases of small-pox or varioloid were reported yesterday at the Health office.

Mr. John W. Sohn, Councilman from the Second ward, Monday night offered his resignation to Council. It was not

AVONDALE .- A district telegraph office is soon to be established in the vil-

The Village Lyceum has reorganized for the season, with S. Lester Taylor at Its head.

An adjourned meeting of the Village Council was held on Monday evening, with Mayor Johnston in the chair, and all the members present save Mr. Hofer.

Mr. Kittredge, from the Committee on Law, reported adversely to the claim for damage to the property of John Murnan on Burnet avenue.

on Burnet avenue.

In the matter of the assessment against the property of John Murr, on East Shil-lite street, a special reference was made to the Finance Committee in connection with the Treasurer, with power to act.

Mr. Gaff presented an ordinance to assess a special tax of $1 46.7 2-10 on each front toot of land abutting Mears avenue (formerly Fisher avenue), from the east ine of Section 15 to the Cartage pike, for the cost and expense of grading find macanamizing said avenue, Passe I.

A. B. Journson, property owner on Mears avenue, presented a protest against said assessment, claiming it will be more than the law will allow and in excess of the additional value which will accrue, In consequence of said improvement, to his property. Mr. Johnson, also Mr. F. W. Dury, obtained permission to and did make short addresses with reference to said assessment, which they claimed as excessive, but which, in fact, is regarded by the knowing ones as both reasonable and just.

On motion, Mr. Johnson's communication was received and referred to a special commutate, consisting of desars. Gall, Kittreaga and Burton, with instructions to examine as to the value of Mr. Johnson's property, as well as other on that street. Adjourned. in consequence of said improvement, to

LEXINGTON, KY,-The residence of Mr. Michael Ratican, Georgetown street, was the scene of an interesting musical entertainment on Monday evening, given oy the members of the Cecilian Musical Bociety.

To-morrow evening, at the Baptist Church, M. C. G. Skillman, State Super-intendent of Baptiet Sabbath-schools, will deliver a lecture on missionary work. And on Friday evening, at the same place, kev. L. B. Woolfolk is anounced to deliver a lecture to young men only. This portion of our society is saily in need of moral instruction, and the church should be filled with them on this occasion.

them on this occasion.

Sheep raising in Central Kentucky will be abandoned if the dogs centinue their nightly raids. Between thieves and dogs the sheep will suffer the coming winter.

Col. George Baber, we learn through mediumistic sources, has purchased the Dispatch. The Colonel will be welcome to Lexington as one possessing enough per. The retirement of editor Rothacker will be unwelcome news to the young lany readers of the Dispatch. Master Augustus E. Williams, a haster Augustus E. Williams, a youthful composer of Harrodsburg, is the author of two musical compositions hast issued by a publishing nouse in the contract.

Sprinkling the streets is said to soften the cracked limestone rock, which goon crumbles under the wheel. A better system of paxing should be adopted, or else the contractors ton-furnishing this crumbling material will own the city if they stay in this profitable business long nough.

The Mayor of Irishtown declared in a campaign speech yesterday, that "for swenty-three years he never drew a pen-pil across a Democratio ticket." The shrewd Mayor might have drawn a pen carosa one or two, during the war.

Captain Daulel Heriely, the Attorney of Irishtown, running for Council, to succeed Major M. C. Johnson does not receive a warm support from the Democratic leaders, when the Captain has been aiding for thirty years. This is instratingle.

gratitude.

We mentioned some time since passage of an ordinance making a fire limit wherein wooden buildings should limit wherein weeden buildings should not be constructed, unless on certain conditions. The same by committee was so amended as to make it worthless, so far as protection to the property holders of the city is concerned. Wooden buildings are still erected, and eld roofs are recovered with shingles, and the ordinance might just as well be repeated for all the good it does. Everybody's business is nobody's business. Yet we think our councilmen would be justey held reour councilmen would be justy beld re-sponsible for a general configuration should one occur, originating in a wooden covered old range of rickety brick buildings.

COVINGTON .- A countryman's horse ran away with a Pike street awning-post yesterday afternoon. Nobody hurt and no serious damage done.

Amelia Beal, charged with lunacy, was yesterday dismissed in the County Court. Mrs. S. E. Meyers resigned as administrative of the late Harvey Meyers, and Mr. J. E. Balsford was thereupon appointed sole administrator, and gave the required bond.

required bond.
Phillips & Jordan Iron and Steel Company, which firm suspended some time ago, began to pay off their employes ago, began to pay off their employes yesterday.

Mayor Athey settled matters this morning with the turbulent "boys" that struck Judge Moore. The above Moore is no relation to "Mickey."

The statement regarding Mr. George The statement regarding Mr. George Cutter, who was arrested in connection with Jack England and Chap Hunier, as mentioned in this morning's Enquirer, is without foundation, as it was admitted by Judge Moore, before Mayor Athey this morning, that Mr. Cutter had nothing whatever to do in the matter, and was upon these statements honorably discharged. The cases of England and Hunter, however, were continued until Thursday.

hursday. Wm. McDonald was fined $26 upon the was need $25 upon the charges of disorderly conduct and resisting officers. In default of payment he was sent to the Work-house for 52 days. Andrew McDonald, $1 and cost, for a common drunk.

NEWPORT .- An adjourned meeting In opposition to the proposed $500,000 subscription of stock to the Kentucky and Great Eastern railroad, was held at the Court-house last night. The Committee appointed to prepare an address to the voters of Campbell county, not being ready to report, offered a resolu-tion to the effect that the city of New port make no other investmen until a free bridge has been built be until a free bridge has been built between this city and Cincinnati, and that they invite Covington to aid them in building the aforesaid bridge.

Mayor Berry then arose and stated that Newport paid annually for bridgecrossing the Onio river $200,000, and at this rate a free bridge would pay for itself in a few years.

The great railroad advocate lost his grip last light.

The School Board last night ordered that the night school should be opened

The School Board last night ordered that the night scuool should be opened the second of November, at Ringgold-street School-hou-e, and continue four months, with one Principal, at a salary of $30 per month. The resignation of Captain Dunknorst was accepted. A meeting will be held next Monday night.

The City Treasurer to-day remitted $29,000 to New York to meet the interest due on the city bonds.

$29,000 to New York to meet the interest due on the city bonds.

A free bridge is now animating the inspired souls of our City Dads.

An alarm of fire, turned in from box 5 this morning, was caused by the burning of a hole in the root of a house belonging to Mr. Frank Hayman, occupied by Mrs. Dunwood, a milliner on Monmouth street. The Fire Department was quickly on hand, and the flames were extinguished without serious damage.

Two unimportant cases were continued in the City Court this morning.

The Ben Jonson Dramatic Club give another of their series of cuter tainments at O.1d fellows' Hall Friday night.

A new roof is being placed on the Tay-

A new roof is being placed on the Tay-lor-street Methodist Church.

The Valley cotton mill at Stafford, Ct., vas burned yesterday. Loss $25,000. The Blackbawk mills of Aurora, Ill.

were burned yesterday. Loss $35,000. J. Ramsey, of Mansfield, Onio, has been arrested for selling liquor without a liceuse.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Elder's residence, Morristown, Indiana, was de stroyed by fice. Loss, $3 000. The "crusaders," of Leesburg, Ohio, are about to start on the warpata again Private meetings have been held. Nearly all the business portion of Austin, Miss., a river town 60 miles below Memphis, was burned last night. Edward A. Phales, head clerk on the Boston and Bangor postal-car, has been arrested on the charge of robbing the mails. Tighe, the Memphis man arrested or charge of obtaining goods under talse pretenses from Cincinnati merchants, has been released, and brings suit for talse arrest against his captors...

The stockholders of the Missouri Paelfic railroad resolved that the stock mittee to agree on a plan for the reorganization of their mutual interests, and come to a proper understanding as to how far their mutual interests assimi-

In the United States Circuit Court at Philadelphia Judge McKeenan affirmed the decree of the District Court, retusing the decree of the District Court, refusing to allow the Syndicate to prove against the estate of Jay Cooke & Co. claims amounting to $250,000, on the ground that the Syndicate was indebted to the bankrupt estate in the sum that reduced their claim to about $140,000.

John Lloyd, who has just served John Lloyd, who has just served a term of imprisonment at Joiet, Illinois, for the robbery of the Marshall most-office, has been rearrested on the charge of throwing a train from the track on the Evansville, Terre Haute and Chicago ratiroad. He confessed, and implicated Dr. Brentlinger, of Southern Illinois, who was also arrested.

Late Foreign News.

ON, STANLEY, ON!

LONDON, Oct. 27 .- News from Central Africa of the date of August 12th has been received here via Zauzibar. Stanley, with his exploring party, had traversed Lake Victoria, and was pushing on successfully. All members of the ex-pedition were in good health.

THE PORTE MAKES A PROMISE CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 27.—The Porte has addressed a circular to the governments interested in Turkish bonds, promising that no turther reductions in interest on bonds would be made.

WAR WITH TURKEY. VIENNA Oct. 27 .- The latest advices from Servia state that the Skup chtlina

IN THE DOMINION. MONTREAL, Oct. 27.—L'Institute Ca-nadion and M. Dantes have definitely fixed on the 18th of Nov. for the burial of Gulbord. This is the date when he died elx years ago.

To-day Mr. Carter made an application in the Superior Court for an order to throw the Moisic Iron Company into involvency. The Judge granted it, and appointed an assignee with orders to report the state of its affairs within ten days. Liabilities estimated at one-hall million. The Morris Bun Coal Com-pany, of New York, is creditor for over $3,000. The failure will be likely to throw a large number of men out of em-

The Western University of Connecti MIDDLETOWN, CONN., Oct. 27.-Rev. Cyrus D. Fass, D. D., was inaugurated President of the Western University. A larger number of the alumni were preslarger number of the alumni were present than on any commencement for years past, and everything passed off in a most successful manner. The addresses of the retiring President, Rev. James Cummings, D. D., and of the new President, were particularly fine. In the evening a social reunion was held in the enapel, where numbers of the alumni made speeches, all expressing the thought that the institution has now entered upon a career of greater influence than ever.

A Swindler Nicely Captured.

Boston, Oct. 27 .- A man calling him self Rev. Samuel Manning, but afterward giving the name of Edward Ashley Barnes, was arrested at Brookfield for attempting to swindle the Savings Bank attempting to swindle the Savings Bank out of $50,000 by means of a forged eneck and two forged telegraph orders. The operator at Springheld recognized the dispatches as forgeries and notified the Brookfield Bank. Barnes went to the Bank, introduced himself as Rev.Samuel Manning, and upon presenting the check was arrested by the Sheriff. He claims to have been a student at the Methodist Episcopal Seminary, at Tilton, from which institution he was suspended for misconduct. misconduct.

Tew Such of a Shootist.

MOBILE, ALABAMA, Oct. 27.—During dance last night at Whistler, on the M & O. R. R., there occurred a fight between two men named Tew and David son. The former wapted to join in the lestivities, but Davidson objected; Tew persisted, and Davidson knocked him down; Tew then drew a revolver and shot Davidson in the stomach. The latter also drew a revolver and fired three shots, missing Tew and wounding a gen-tleman who was in the act of taking a lady from the room.

LOCAL NEWS. MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

Man Shot While being Taken to the Ste

About 1 o'clock this morning a pisto shot was heard on Sycamore street, near Third, and officers hastening to the spot found a man, whose name was ascertained to be Henry C. Johnson, lying on the sidewalk with a wound on the left side of his head, from which the blood side of his head, from which the blood was oozing. The body was at once taken to the Germania House on Sycamore street, opposite the National Theater, where the deceased boarded, and Dr. Tate summoned. After an examination of the puiss and heart the doctor pronounced life extinct, and immediately sent word to the Coroner. In the meantime Lieutenant Arnold proceeded to arrest the supposed murderers, Mike Mullen, Wm. Dowling, and two others, not thought to be directly but indirectly connected with the affair. The names of connected with the affair. The names of the latter are James Douglas, stage man-ager of the National, and James C. Rob-

Tae commonly accepted theory of the mucder is this: Mr. Doug-as and his wife were returning to their hotel, the Germania House, when they were met by the deceased, who was somewhat intoxicated. The latter began at once to use insulting language toward Mrs. Douglas, whom it seems he knew from

Douglas, whom it seems he knew from being a boarder in the same house and a constant attendant at the theater.

Mr. Douglas harried with his wife, collowed by Robinson, to the hotel where he lett her and summoned the private policemen, Mullen and Dowling, from the theaters of the private policemen. the theater and ordered them to arrest the man on the charge of being drunk and disorderly; the party accompanied by Douglas and a man by the name of James Robinson started for the Hammond-street Station.

When near the corner of Third and Sycamore a pistol shot was heard, and Johnson was seen to fall heavily to the ground, as one witness says, "like a ground, as one witness says, "like a log." Who fired the shot or anything turther is not known. Some suppose barreled fevoiver was found on his person with one chamber empty.

Others say that Douglas shot him from behind, but this can not be determined until the post mortem is made, and dis-closes the direction of the builet. Up to noon the post mortem had not been completed, and the probability is that the inquest will not be held until to morrow. The four men, Dowing, Douglas, Mullen and Robinson, were neid in custout by Judge Lindeman this morning, bail being refused taem. An extra session of the Potice Court will be held to morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock for a hearing of the case. of the case.

Notes in the Police Court.

Cornelius Hanrahan, as the frequent ers of the "Police Varieties" are well aware, is the efficient manager of this popular place of resort. He has an eye business, has Corney. And when seats in the orchestra circle are for business, has Corney. And when the seats in the orchestra circle are filled, as they usually are, which is an infallible indication of a full house, the good-natured face of Corney is wreathed in amilies, which seem to say, "Here's business." No wonder, then, that he upped a significant wink this morning to Prompter Callahan, making that gentleman lorget momentarily his affliction—a sore thooat (said organ being tleman lorget momentarily his affliction—a sore threat (said organ being adorned with the Prompter's left sock and a piece of ham fat, Corney's prescription), for every artist was in his or her place, calmly awaiting the musical distord of Johnny Ostendorf, who renders the somewhat familiar prelude before each performance, the last line of which is "fithisyeudoasyoushalansert' (rod"—a signal that the piece is "on."

With a whimmering face a neathy

God"—a signal that the piece is "on,"
With a whimpering face, a neatly dressed little woman of 35 is hustled from the bench. "Mary Gallager, you were drunk again, eh? Officer, what about her case?" "Well, sir, I found her drunk on the sidewalk on Central avenue, and I hired an express wagon and took her in." "Now, Mary, to my certain knowledge you have been here several times before. This won't do."
"Yes, your Honor, I have been to the Work'us a good deal, aid always for a long time, and I don't want to go back right away." "Of course you don't, but this is the only way to keen you sober.

You'll be just a month older before I can look upon your face again. Make it 80 days."

look upon your face again. Make it all days."

Up staps a bright-eyed mulatio girl, named Annie Harris. "Ancie, you are charged with taking $75 from Mrs. Harris, is, on Culvert streat, Mrs. Harris, take the stand and tell us all about it," "Well, Judge, she took the money from my house, but I thought she was in fun. But she wouldn't give it to mo." "Is she is your daughter?" "No, sir; but she has my son for a lover. I spect she towes him. I love him, too. Mebbe she took it for my own good." "But, see here—you charge her with stealing this money." "I don't charge herlwid nothing; but I jist want that money." "Well, you can have it. Annie, you are dismissed. Go home and keep on loving that young man." With a beaming smile of conscious love she skipped merrily away, giving place to James Ryan, as seedy-looking a chap as ever came from the Emerald Isle. "James, the charge of vagrancy is against you on the slate. The officer says you have no home and that you have been to the Work-house often." "Thrue, fur ve, Judge; but let me go, and I'll lave the town in twenty minutes." "Well, then, skip." "Thank ye, sir, and God bless ye." Corney says to him in a stage whiaper, "Don's let me see you here again." "Troth I won't thin; divil a foot."

The notorlous Henry Pickett, of Rat Row, a colored man of Herculean frame.

The notorious Henry Pickett, of Rat Row, a colored man of Heroulean frame, with gray hair, steps in the sweat-box as witness against Ed. Cunningham, a young woolly-headed youth, who is up for assaulting Pickett with a brick-bat last night at a row which occurred in Pickett's den. Ed. was dragged from under a bed by the arresting after.

Pickett's den. Ed. was dragged from under a bed by the arresting officer. As the venerable Pickett guard shows up a swollen lip where the brick struck him, the prisoner was fined $10 and costs.

Wm. Manning, a shock headed man for lottering, steps to the fire. "Wm. you are running with a bad crowd. If you are not wicked yourself you soon will be. So as to give you a chance I'H sentence you lightly this time. I'll make it ten days in the Workhouse. Now go and do better when you come out."

"James McDermott, what have you

"James McDermott, what have you "James McDermott, what have you to say to the energy of drunkenness?"
"Well, boss, I was in that fix, sure enough" "Where do you live?" "Scott county, Kentucky." "What is your objec—" "Railroad," "No! what was your object in coming down here? Have you any money?" "Well, I guess I've got a little." "Well, this is the place to lose it. You will pay one dollar and costs." And at that he reached for the money to pay his fine, just as Corney costs." And at that he reached for the money to pay his fine, just as Corney yanked him towards the Clerk's desk, where the debt was liquidated.

Soon after this the croquet mallet of "Dean" Ramsay fell with solemn sound, and the amusement reporter withdrew.

The Ladies' Bethel Aid Society. The ladies of the Bethel Aid Society held a meeting at their rooms in the Bethel building this morning to open the season of work for the unfortunate of our A large number of ladies were in at-

A large number of ladies were in attendance. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows:

President, Mrs. R.* P. Wentworth;
Vice President, Mrs. Chas. Weatherby;
Secretary, Mrs. Howarth; Treasurer,
Mrs. M. H. Richardson.

Since the close of last year's labors
the ladies' rooms in the Bethei building, have been beautifully frescoed in oil, through the kindsess of Mr. L. E. Stevens.

ens.
At the meeting this morning a handsome and costly mirror, valued at $300, was presented to the ladies for their rooms by Mr. Wm. Glenny, the wellknown Vine-street importer.

The Society are making commendable

The Society are making commendable efforts to turnish their rooms in the Bethel building in a suitable manner, and these douations are not only highly acceptable, but are given to a worthy

RIVER NEWS. STAGE OF THE RIVERS.

scial to the Star. Pittsburg, Oct. 27.—River continues falling, with 2 feet 2 inches in the channel by the metal marks. Weather cloudy, with the thermometer 4 deg. and a heavy wind from ne west. Oil : ity-8 inches and falling. Brownsville—4 feet and failing. Wheeling—4 feet and failing. Marietta—4 feet 2 inches and failing.

Galf-polis-River slowly falling.
Louisville-45 feet at the head of the canal, and river falling.
Evansville-River falling with 5 feet 2 fuches in the channel.

Nashville-2; feet in the Cumberland and failing.

failing.
Carro--7 feet and failing.
Capt. R. W. Wise has returned from Peoria.
The Thomas W. Means and two barges have been chartered by a circus company, so make a trip down the Onio and up the Mississippi a rivers.

The Acme takes on 800 barrels of potatoes at Rising Sun for New Oricans.

The Naomi is to be soid by the U.S. Marshal in this city next Tuesday.

The Lizzie Gardner goes to Syracuse to-morrow to take a tow of ten produce boats to New Orleans. Harrison Williams, the veteran pilot, is in the city. U.S. Local Inspectors Fisher and Devenny yes criday inspected and tested Captain Wenzel's new freight steamer Acm. just concern the peted here, and designed for the South trade, particularly the waters of Red Ouachita rivers. Captain Wenzal, ner examples of the control of peted here, and designed for the Santhern trade, particularly the waters of Red and Ounchita rivers. Captain Wenzel, her commander and owner, pasides in Newport, Keatucky. The hull is by Alex. Perry, of Covington, Ky., and is of the following dimensions: Leagth 144 feet; floor 21 feet; heam 21 feet 3 inches; depth of hold 45 feet. Her draught is light, win everything on board, 11 inches astern and 7 inches forward, and will trem on 10 inches. The boiler, which is entirely new, was manufactured by R. Jot. Jones & Co., of this city. It is cylindrical, with fire-box, having as unusual number of strong bolts. It is 125 feet in length, 42 inches in diameter, and contains 6 flues, 40 which have a diameter of 8 inches, and 1 of 10 inches. The boiler is double riveted, and stood a hydraulic test-pressure of 210 lbs per square inch, while the working steam pressure allowed is 140 lbs. The engines were originally built here, and were used on the steamer Oddity. They each have a diameter of 85 finches, with 5 feet stroke, working a water-wisel 12 feet 5 inches in diameter, with buckets 16 feet 9 inches in length, and 12 inches wide. Pilot Oscar Wintten takes her 6 New Oricans. Tim. Morgan is the chief engineer. She is substantially bulls, and being of light draught is suinfirably adapted to the rade for which she is designed. She cost $1,500. Her Custom-house measurement is 118,38 tons. Captain Wenzel built the Oddity here in the fail of 180, and the Bertha Brunner in 1873.

The U. S. tender steamer Lilly has made the following changes between Wheeling and Pittsburg: Light at Herse-thil moved down 170 vards; light at Recoon moved down 170 vards; light at Herse-thil moved down 170 vards; light at Beach Shand moved up 20 yards. A number of changes will be made between Wheeling and Cinclunati.

Edward F. Baker, son of the late Captain S. Cait Baker, died Thesaway at St. Louis, aged 18 years.

The Kanawha Belle came down this morning with two barges of coal.

years. The Kanawha Belle came down this morn-

The Arms was none came down this morning, with two barges of coal.

The Acme did not get off till 9 o'clock this morning.

The Kane Waters No. 2 brought here this morning two barges of stone.

Dennis Garvailey and wife to Philip Hirsch, Lot 47 in Longworth's subdivision of Tusculum, in the eastern part of the First ward, i by 1:0 feet, lying on the north side of the Wooster pikes—$1,500.

R. S. Hamilton to R. H. Thotayson, the un-divided half of a lot 50 by 107 feet, un the south-west corner of McMillan and Boone streets, Second ward—$500.

Poplar steek, 140 cast of Baymiller street1501.

A. W. Anderson and wife to Elbert March, a triangular 0., 16 by 0 feet, 17 ing 10 feet south of Gest street and 125 feet west of McLean ave enue—51, and other considerations.

Those Lacy to W. T. Wright, lot 26% by 110 feet, on the cast side of Main atreet, 220 feet morth of Mill street, in Harrison—3500.

Same to same, lot 27 % by 112 feet, opposite the rear end of the above lot and fronting on the east side of Mill street—260.

Margares R. Poor to J. B. Moloe, pernetual lease of Lots 164, 163, and part of 166, in the leasor's addition to Cumminaville, at an annual rent of 267 15, with the privilege of purchasing the same for 353.

H. R. Teetor and wife to Amanda B. Gordon, lot 30 by 126 feet, on the south side of Mulberry street, 125 leet east of the C., H. & D. R. E.; also, lot 30 by 125 feet, on the south side of same street, 245 feet west of Buckeye street, in Lockland—4500.

P. H. Clark and wife to Bernard Jungkind.

P. H. Clark and wife to Bernard Jungkind.

P. H. Clark and wife to Bernard Jungkind, 10 acres in section 6, Green township—41,500.

R. B. Gordon and wife to Edward Johnson, three loss, each 20 by 110 feet, on the cast side of Wayne avenue, south of Sycamore street, in Lockland—440.

Anna M. Hail and husband to Sophia B. Lane, lot 100 by 200 feet, on the Montgomery pixe, in Section 25, Columbia township—1500.

Emma P. Mardis and lut-bandto A. R. Taph, Lots 171 and 182, in Carter's subdivision at Foster's Hill Station, on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, each 25 by 120 feet—4400.

The Little Sistors of the Poor to John Hen nessy, lot 20 by 75 feet, on the northwest side of Fifth street, 248 feet northeast of Lock street— . Tallant and wife to Mary A. Moore, wm. Tallant and wife to Mary A. Moore, Lots 59 and 60, in the grantor's addition to Avondale, each 25 by 100 feet—$100.

J. W. Lawson to Wm. Retzsch, five years' lense of a two-story brick house on the north-west corner of Freeman and Poplar streets, at an annual rent of $500.

The German Pro-estant Cemetery to same, Lot 1,191, on the plat of the Cemetery grounds—$82 96.

CINCINNATI DAILY MARKET.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27-2 P. M.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27-2 P. M.

FLOUR-Market steady with fair local demand. Family is worth $5 80a6 20, and choice oid family solid as high as 16 55 per brl to-day. Extra $5 00a5 35, superfine $4 60a4 39, low grades $1 75a4 25 per brl. Springwheat flour $6 80a5 26. Rye flour is worth $4 60a5 30, and buck wheat flour $6 00a7 00 per brl.

WHEAT-Prime to choice is worth $1 35a1 45 for white, and $1 2 a1 35 for red, per bu. Hill is quoted $1 35a1 40 for prime. Good sample, $1 35a1 30 for white, and $1 15a1 20 for red. Inferior grades are duil, the market being overstocked. They range, for red and white, 75c as1 per bu.

stocked. They range, for red and white, 75c ast per bu.

BABLEY—Steady; with fair demand. Canada is quoted $1 20al 35 for good to choice, and lows $1 10al 20 per ou.

OATS—Quiet and weak. Mixed are worth 30as5c, and wifte 37at3c per bu. Some choice lows white sold at 45c.

CORN-Is easy and in moderate demand. Mixed is worth 50a5tc per bu with sales of ear at inside price.

at loside price.

LARD—The market is quiet. Prime steam current nake is worth 18%; kettle is worth 18% at 18% for country worth.

er lb.

MESS PORK-The market is weaker to-day, and there is a fair demand for prime city with sales of 100 bris at $40 75, and 112 bris at $20 50 GREEN MEATS-The demand is light at The for shoulders, 10% for clear rib, and 11c for clear sides, per lb, for future delivery.

BULK MEAIS—The offerings are limited and markt quiet at $\frac{1}{2}\text{c}$ for shoulders; 12\text{g}$ and $\frac{1}{2}\text{c}$ for clear rib sides, and $\frac{1}{2}\text{c}$ more wanted, per lb; clear sides are nominar at 13c per lb.

BACON-Is quiet, with moderate demand at BACON—is quiet, with moderate demand at 9assays for shoulders; 133c for slear rib, and statists for clear rib, and statists for clear sides, per lb, packed. Sugar-cured hams, 14ya15 se per lb. COFTON—Market dull and weak. A decline of see per lb to-day. Sales, I balo. We quote: Ordinary, 11%c; good ordinary, 12%c; low midding. 12%c; midding. 12%c; good midding. 12%c; midding. 12%c; fair, 15%c ner lb.

iting, 12%c; mutating fair, 14%c; fair, 15%c let lb.
WHISHY—Market steady, with sales of 427

WHISKY—Market steady, with sales of 427 bris at $1 13 per gallon.

BEANS—The market is quiet and weak, the receipts being in excess of the demand. Medium grades are worth $1 70al $0, and choice navys $1 90a2 per bu.

BEOOM CORN—There is a moderate demand but the market is steady at previous prices. We quote: Common red brush bace, green stalk brad 788½c, green buff a ue per ib.

BUTTER—The market remains quiet and prioses are steady and without any change. Choice Western Reserve 25a2fc, and prime Central and Southern Ohio 23a24c; and 25a3 m ro can be had for extra selections of single packages. Lower grades are worth 16a:de per lb.

CHEESE—The market is firm with fair de-

OHEESE-The market is firm with fair demand, and we quote prime to choice factory 185 alice peals. CUFFEE—The demand is mainly local and COFFEE—The demand is mainly local and only mederate. Prices steady and unchanged. Rio is worth 25/425/c for common; 24/25/c for fair to good, and 15/25/c for prime 40 choice per lb. Maya is quoted $4/25/c for Prime 40 choice per lb. COAL—The market is firm. There is a fair demand and ample supply. Sales affoat at 12/c for Youghiogheny, 10c for Ashland, and 9c for Onlo river, per bu. Hocking Valley, in cleva-

Orio river, per bu. Hocking Valley, in cleva-tor, life per ba. We quote, delivered to consum-ers: Youghiogheny, balfer, Muskingrum, Hock-ing Valley and Kanawins, 14a15c; Ashland, 18 414c, and Ohio carnel, 20c per bu. DiffED FRUITS-Domestic are firm, with fair demand at 93,240% of or apples, and 115a 125,0 for peaches per lb. Foreign are steady and quiet. Layer raisms are worth $2 75,350 or per box. Figs are quoted 18a18c; citron 28a 38c; primats, 10a14c; dates, 55,38c; currants. De; branes, 10a14c; dates, 5; a8c; currants, 5; a8c ber it.
Et(GS—The receipts are fimited, and there is a fair demand with a firm market at 22c per

GREEN FRUITS—Apples are in moderate

for common.

HEML'-The demand is light, with moderate are ample at V. c for country and 9 se for city remicrosi.

TOBACCO—The total offerings at auction were 113 hists and 4 hoxes, at the following prices: Whists and 3 hoxes Mason county, Ky., trash, lugs and leaf—2 at $450a1 us, 3 at $7 cs 1 00, 5 at $8 002 30, 30 at $10 0, 34 50; at $6 05 at $6 00 at $10 0, 34 50; at $6 05 at $6 00 at $10 0, 34 50; at $6 05 at $6 00 at $10 0, 34 50; at $6 00 at $6

$6 10a9, 10 at $10als 50, 2 at $30 75a21

Cincinnati Dry Goods Market.

The trade has been moderate the past week. Prices are unchanged. We quote some leading articles as follows:

Brown Shertings—Standard Eastern, 10c; standard Weatern, 8% site; seconds, 5c.

Bleacher Corross—New York Mills, 15%c; Wamsutta, 14c; Fruis of the Loom, 11%c; Lonsdale, 18a1; 5c; Great Falls A. 9c; 10-4 Bleached Sheetings—Lowell, 39c; Allendale, 38c; Fopperill, 21%c; Boston, 31%c; Pequot, 87%c.

PRINTS—Fancy, 385%c; standard, 7%c, and lower grades, 565% past yard.

JRANS—Winona, 36c; Guiding Star, 35c; Manneola, 50c; Gibraltar, 45c; American, 45c; Queen City, 60c; Deer Island, 60c; Black Run, 50c; Guidang Star, 35c; Manneola, 50c; Gibraltar, 45c; American, 45c; Queen City, 60c; Deer Island, 60c; Black Run, 50c; Geneva, 10%c; Queen of the Weak, 12%c.

Tickings—Conestoga C C A, 14%c; Conestoga C T, 15%c; Conestoga C C A, 14%c; Conestoga C T, 15%c; Conestoga C A, 12%c; Queen of the West X, 20c; Queen of the West So Inch, 45c.

Gacianati Liec Stock Market. CINCUNNATI, Oct. 27.

Cincinnati Live Stock Market. CINCINNATI, Oct. 27-2 P. M. The following are the receipts and shipments of live stock for the past 24 nours:

Shipment HOGS—Are active to-day and the market steady. Stockers are worth 45 (465 59); common light, 45 75a7 09; medium to good, 47 (9a7 20, and extra butchers', 57 25a7 25 per ceutal. CATTLE—Market quiet and unchanged. SHEEP—Quiet and firm. No change is prices.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH. Oswigo, Oct. 27.—Wheat lower: No. 1 Min-wankee Club, $1 34. Corn steady at lic. Bar-ley quiet, with some inquiry.

Tolepo, Oct. 27.—Wheat weak: Amber, $1 18; cash, $1 25; No. 2, $1 044; white Michigan, $1 23%. Corn and Oats unchanged.

33 393. Corn and Ogts unchanged.

Liverpool, Oct. 27.—Cotton quiet and steady on the spot, but 11-16d easier on arrival. Midding uplands 5% d. do Oricans 7% d.

BUPFALO, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Wheat quiet: No. 1 Milwaukee, 31 28. Corn quiet. Octs nominally 40c for No. 2 Chicago. Bariey dull.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 27.—Wheat unsettled: October, 31 11%. November, 31 08%. Bariey gradiar: October, 31 08, November, 51 01.

ENDIANEOUS COR. 27.—Wheat unsettled: October, 31 01. Indianapolis, oct. 27.—Figur quiet and un-changed. Wheat quiet and unchanged. Corni-car, 50c; shedled, dull at 52c. Bran. 314a142. Provisions and lard quiet and unchanged. London, Oct. 27.—Securities open nominally unchanged, and the market is quiet. Eric shares are quoted 142; at which quotation transactions are made. Money continues at full rates.

full rates. CLEVELAND. O., Oct. 27 — Wheat is weak: No. 1 red, 31 35; No. 2 do, 31 20; rejected, 850; old nominal. Cora dull: high mixed, 63c; low mixed, 63c; ear on track, 60c. Oats lower; No. 1 State, 40n:20; rejected, 34c. Petrolenm unchanged. shanged.

changed.

HITESURG, Oct. 27.—Wheat firm and prices unchanged. Corn is dull's shelled, 40a'22c on brack; ear, 73a'3c. Petroleum gulet; crede, 17 oa t-Parker's; refined, 13½'al8½c, Philadelphia delivery.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 27.—Floar in fair demand and firm at $5a8. Corn easier: No. 2 mixed, 73a'3c. Oats dull and unchanged. Lard quies and unchanged at 14½'al4½c. Bacon in fair demand and firm at 10al4½c. Bacon in fair demand and firm at 10al4½c. Bacon to fair demand and firm at 10al4½c.

and unchanged at 183,814 %.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 27.—Flour sulet and unchanged. Wheat quiet and unchanged at $1 16 at 25. Corn quiet but firm at 50nc2c. Onto 30nc45c. Provisions dull and entirely nominal; nothing doing, and unchanged. Lard: steroc. 143,814 %c. Whisky quiet and unchanged at $1 13. Bangung quiet and unchanged.

14 13. Barging quiet and unchanged at 12. Barging quiet and unchanged.

DETROIT, Oct. 27.—Flour steady and unchanged. Wheat is dull' extra, 31 384; No. 1 White Michigan 11 244; No. 2 do., 51 14: amber Michigan, 51 24; No. 2 do., 51 14: amber Michigan, 51 24; No. 2 do., 51 14: amber Michigan, 51 24; No. 2 do., 51 14: amber Michigan, 51 24; No. 2 do., 51 14: amber Michigan, 51 24; No. 2 do., 51 14: amber Michigan, 51 24; No. 2 do., 51 14: amber Michigan, 52 per bushel. Meas pork 22 at 2 . Lard. prime kettle-rendered, 14c. Bran 14c.

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Flour is in moderate demand; Western superfine, 44 50a5 07; common extra, 53 50a6 09; Wisconsin and Minnesota extra family, 55 5a7 75; writer wheat Onio, Indiana and Michigan, 55 7ax 59; Illinois, 7ax 8 30; 84 Louis, 57 5a. Corn quiet: mixed and yellow, 75 75c. Onto in fair demand and firm: choice mixed and waite, 49a58c. Rys, 51.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Wheat; cash, 51 01; November, 51c; year, 48c. Outs steady; October, 33 4c; November, 52c; year, 48c. Outs steady; October, 33 4c; November, 52c; year, 48c. Outs steady; October, 33 4c; November, 52c; year, 48c. Outs steady; October, 33 4c; November, 52c; year, 48c. Barley steadier; November, 52c; year, 53a, 6. Barleys and 51; year, 513 c. Barleys and 75; year, 518 5; February, 512 5c.

NASINVILLE Oct. 27.—Flour dull at 55 00a6 50. Wheat dull at 512 30. ary, $12.25.

NASHVILLE Oct. 27.—Flour dull at $5.00a6.50.

Wheat dull at $1at 30. Corn dull and lower at $56. Oats dull and lower at $556. Provisions quiet and unchanged. Lard, 15c. Buik meats quiet and unchanged; 9gal ma33gc. Hacon quiet and unchanged; 10gal ma33gc.

quiet and unchanged: 9gal milite. Hacon quiet and unchanged: 10gal all 15g. Silgar-cured hams, 14c, an packed. Whisky quiet but firm at $1.24 Coffee in good demand at full prices at 215ga23gc.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 27.—Flour quiet and unchanged. Wheat strong: No. 2 red Western, 31 42al 43. Corn shr: Western mixed, 72ga. Onts quiet and unchanged. Hay unter: Pennsylvania and Maryland timothy, 520a3. Provisions dult. Pors, $2.36. Bulk shoulders Provisions dult. Pors, $3.36. Bulk shoulders 195gc, clear rib sides hall 2gc, loose. Bacon dult-shoulders 195gc, clear rib sides hall 2gc, loose. Bacon dult-shoulders 195gc, clear rib sides hall 2gc, loose. Bacon dult-shoulders 195gc, clear rib sides hall 2gc, loose. Bacon dult-shoulders 195gc, clear rib sides hall 2gc, loose, paroleum unsettled; crude 62gu67gc, refined 135gc. Whisky duil at $1.47.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—Clover-good dull.

GREEN PRUITS—Apples are in moderate domand with ample receipts, and common to choice are worth $124 per br1 in store. Lemons are selling at $748 per br1 in store Lemons are steady at $748 per br2. Cranberries are worth $10412 per br1 for best quality.

HAY—The market is steady and quiet. There is a fair local demand for the best grades, but inferior grades are still neglected. No change in prices. We quote: No. 1 timothy $2122 for 1000c, and $1920 for tight pressed per ton. Inferior qualities sights per ton, on arrival. In store $2 more per ton is required.

HIDES—There is a moderate demand with an ample supply and a stondy market. We quote green hides objectly, green salted $52 at $150 at $15 and; firsts, have. Cheese firm: Western fini; 12\(\)_a1\(\)_c. Eggs steal; I Western, fresh, Earste.

New Obleans, Oct. 27.—Western produce and groceries are unchanged. Sugars are quiet: common, 7c. fair, 7\(\)_c; good fair, $\)_s $\)_{60}; centrifugal, $\)_{9\}c. Molasses in good domand; common to fair, $\)_$sable; if to prime, $\)_{60}$ $\]_{60}$ $\]_{60}$ arises the common for fair, $\)_{70}$ $\]_{60

seli at toesal 25 for good to pinne, and Tabayo
for common.

HRAIL'—The demand is light, with moderate receipts. Rough kentucky is held at $150ni49 per ton. Drassed in worth 10/sale per in.

MILLELL—The market is easy and gent
it fails. Drassed in worth 10/sale per in.

MILLELL—The market is easy and gent
it fails. Subjectiff are as in the state milliant in the state of the state uts quiet. Middles heavy: cit hen gelde. Lard dult and mass that am, 14c. Butter heavy: Western, case firm at 6 gatse. Whicky quie